TWIC

Transportation Worker Identification Card

The Transportation Worker Identification Credential, also known as TWIC®, is required by the Maritime Transportation Security Act for workers who need access to secure areas of the nation's maritime facilities and vessels (including industrial plants). TSA conducts a security threat assessment (background check) to determine a person's eligibility and issues the credential. U.S. citizens and immigrants in certain immigration categories may apply for the credential.

MANY OF OUR CONTRACTORS REQUIRE A TWIC CARD

How to Apply:

Complete the online application <https://www.tsa.gov/for-industry/twic> or you can complete the entire process in person at an application center.

Schedule an appointment online or call (855) 347-8371 weekdays, 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. ET. Walk-ins are welcome, but appointments take priority.

Visit a TWIC application center to:

1. Provide required documentation, be fingerprinted, and take a facial photo. Bring your current U.S. passport or a driver's license and birth certificate. See other acceptable documents at their website listed above.
2. Pay a non-refundable fee valid for five years with a credit card, money order, company check or certified/cashier's check. New applicant: $128, Replacement card: $60
3. You can have your card mailed to your home address or you can pick it up at the application center. You can check your status online at any time.
